For those who are sitting tight there is not only enough but a feast of good things in the way of excursions and outlings on and about the big, big day which have been airranged by the railroad and steamboat companies. The glad man who loves to sit by and interpret the message of the sad, salty waves will find many good things coming to him in the amounteements of tribs and excursions printed in the advertising columns of to-day's Tribane. There will be pieuty of pickings also for people of the other sort, who like the waves without salt, previded they have a restful background of mountainside or wood fringed shores to break against.

If the day is propitious New York's own Hudson River is sure to have on its waters a big fleet full of pleasure seekers. The new steamer of the Albany Day Line, the Hendrick Hudson, will make two special excursions up the river, one to-morrow and one on Friday. The start from the New York andings will be made an hour later than the regular departure hour of the Day Line steamers, and stops will be made at West Point and Newburg. The Hudson will go as far as Poughkeepsie, where a stop of an hour and a half will be made, giving the passengers an opportunity to look over Vassar College. The steamer will get back to New York early in the evening. Those who want to find out how long they can sleep through the city's noises on the holiday may go up on the Mary Powell in the early afternoon and return on the Hudson. The same arrangement and change of boats is offered to travellers on Friday.

The steamer Homer Ramsdell, of the Central Hudson Line, will leave the Franklin street dock

NIPISSING MINERS STRIKE.

Cobalt, Ont., July 2.—Three hundred miners went on strike to-day in the Nipissing mines. About fifty men remained at work. The trouble arose over a matter of wages, which, it is expected, will be adjusted. The miners' union is involved.

TWO CARLOADS OF POWDER EXPLODE. Salt Lake City, July 2.—Two carloads of giant cowder on a sidetrack of the Oregon Short Line at Beck's Hot Springs, five miles from this city, caught fire from burning grass and exploded this afternoon, jarring heavy buildings in this city and breaking windows for miles around. A local passenger train was a quarter of a mile away when the powder exploded. Every window in the train was broken and passengers were huried from their seats. Telegraph and telephone communication was cut off, as every MacFarland's Bolt Bewilders Democratic Leaders in Bay State.

Boston, July 2—Mr. MacFarland's resignation as chairman of the executive committee of the Democratic State Committee and his boit from the party, with his criticism of Henry M. Whitney, has bewildered the party leaders, and other resignations are expected. Two questions that have arisen are whether MacFarland's resignation presages the nomination of W. S. Hisgen, of Springfield, as the Independence League candidate for Governor, and as to how E. Gerry Brown's candidacy for Lieutenant Governor will stand. The trend of sentiment now seems to be for Hisgen by the anti-Whitney forces. Some of the MacFarland faction are remaining in the Democratic camp until after the convention to prevent if possible Whitney's nomi-

Julius Lent, six years old, while rilaving with firecrackers at his home. No. 533 East 17d street, set his clothes after and was severely burned.

Somebody early in the evening threw a glant torped from a passing Ninth avenue train. It samshed the glass in the door of the Consuldated California Vineyard Company, at No. 685 Nioth avenue, and shattered a big plate glass window. The noise brought out the reserves from the Sin Preciate, but they arrested no one.

The usual danger of fires on the Fourth insbeen aggravated by the garbage strike, which limited large quantities of paper and other inflammable objects loose in the streets and yards. Chief Croker advises that all this be wet thoroughly to-night and that unusual care be exercised this part of to-morrow and every avoidable main in the Fire Department will be on duty.

Samuel Grubbs of No. 182 West 17th street, was fined $25 in Special Sessions for selling a revolver to a boy under sixteen. Commissioner Bingham, to stop this sort of offence, asked Corporation Counsel English with the could do about the Heenson to acrry revolvers. THAW WILL NOT HURRY JEROME.

Has Counsel Withdraw Motion Ordering Second Trial in October.

A. Russell Peabody and "Dan" O'Reilly, counsel for Harry K. Thaw, served notice on Acting District Attorney Smyth yesterday that they intended withdrawing the motion made before Justice McCall, in the Supreme Court, to compel District Attorney Jerome to show cause why Thaw's second trial should not be held next October. Thaw, his lawyers said, had come to the conclusion that he would be fairly treated by Mr. Jerome, and ordered his attorneys to withdraw the motion before this morning, the time set for the argument.

The talk around the Criminal Courts Building yesterday indicated that the trial would take place in October. In that month Justice Mc-Call will be sitting in the Criminal Branch of the Supreme Court; Justice Bischoff will sit in November and Justice Dowling in December. It was also intimated that Mr. Jerome pected to have the trial conducted by one of the General Sessions judges.

BIG MACKEREL QUICKLY SOLD.

Gardiner Bay Denizen Gathered in at Fulton Market by Italians.

Italian lovers of horse mackerel made short shrift of the 560-pounder caught by the crew of the steamer Ranger off the Promised Land, in Gardiner's Bay, when it arrived here yesterday. As told, in The Tribune, the fish was shipped to Fulton Market, and when it came it was found to be consigned to Chesebro Brothers. It was soon after dawn when the Italians began to come in. The fish was unloaded at about 7 o'clock. At the Aquarlum, where they know all about fish, big and little, it was said that this horse mackerel was the largest specimen ever seen in this city.

The big fellow was put up at auction, and after some spirited bidding it was knocked down to a pedler for $25. He soon resold a large part of it, and the purchasers cut it up into steaks, and by noon the whole fish had been sold at a big profit to Italian devers and families on the East Side. DEMOCRATS CONFER IN DAVIS CAMP.

To Seek Additional Investigating Power if Senators Scrutinize Hudson.

The Democratic members of the Legislature held once Democrate members of the Davis Association club-caucus last night in the Davis Association club-cuse, Jersey City, to decide on a course of action the session next Friday. Some of the Assembly-en favored an adjournment until September with-tic considering any of the Senate bills introduced the recommendation of Governor Stokes. This by the recommendation of Governor Stokes. This was opposed by Assemblymen Tumulty and Alexander, who advocated the passage of bills suggested by the Hahn committee. The proposed investigation by Senate committees was discussed and it was decided that, while it was a political movement, the Democrats should also act as counter irritant, and that the Hahn committee should continue its investigation and be given additional power to enable it to inquire into county and municipal affairs. If the Senate committee drives its probe into the Hudson County Board of Free-holders the Assembly committee will then investigate Essex and Republican counties.
